Notes for MARY BOLIN:

In the record of Mary's medical examination Oct. 14, 1896 for drawing her father's pension as a helpless child, she was age 43 and weighed 90 lbs, and lived in Paragon, Ind. It states:
"This claimant is brought before us by her brother, Entirely helpless, she can't walk a step without assistance. When assisted in walking her legs jerk in every direction having no control of them, She cannot stand alone. This state of things has existed from her history since she was 13 years of age. We think it is a case of confirmed, incurable chorea. She is totally blind in her left eye, the cornea has been destroyed by ulceration. Can barely discover daylight with her right eye, Trochania(?) has existed in it from her childhood, can not define an object - she, from her excessive tremulousness cannot feed herself - Her mentality is much impaired, she is very feeble and she, Mary very poor.

The Martinsville Republican, 7 Jan 1886:

Birthday Dinner

Uncle Balam Bolin was born in eastern Kentucky, on the south fork of the Kentucky River, in Clay county in 1829. When four years old emigrated with his parents to Morgan County, Indiana, in which county he has lived continually ever since. On August 10, 1862, he enlisted in the 67th Regt., Ind. Volunteers, was taken prisoner with his regiment at Manfordsville, Kentucky, about September 15th or 20th. While a paroled prisoner he was taken sick, and confined to the hospital some eight month, and then discharged on account of disability, for which he is now drawing a pension. On the 4th inst. being the 57th anniversary of his birthday, the boys decoyed the old man off several miles into the woods for the ostensible purpose to hunt rabbits, continuing their chase until about noon, in the meantime his friends and relatives to the number of sixty or seventy had assembled at his residence and prepared a sumptuous dinner; it looked as though enough to feed a regiment. When uncle Baalam got in about noon with his game expecting to have a roast and was ushered into the crowd, saw the feast prepared for him, to say the least the surprise was complete. Uncle Balam - well he laughed and cried all at the same time. After all had partaken of the feast and passed the usual compliments, the afternoon was spent in having a general good time. We hope he may live to enjoy many such happy birthdays.

Have answer to recent query. Wm. Nathan Bolin is the grandson of Balem Bolin, and is married to his second cousin the granddaughter of Stephen Bolin, the brother of Balem. Both Balem and Stephen are sons of Christopher C. Bolin and Nancy Baker, whose parents were George Baker and Susannah Morris. Now I am looking for the father of my grandfather, Harden Asher, b. in Morgan Co. In the 1880 Census he was listed as living with his Mother, Catherine, age 61, had a brother Jacob, age 34 and a younger brother, John, Age 14. Another source shows a Catherine married to a Robert Asher, with a son Jacob's age, but Harden was not listed among their children. The Catherine was the right age. Any help out there would be greatly appreciated. Louise O. Fellman, 416 8th St. N. E. Staples, Minnesota, 56479

According to an unpublished manuscript available at the Indiana University Library, Bloomington and called "Monroe County in the Mexican War" by Henry Clay Duncan, 1911, Governor Whitcomb issued a call for volunteers for the war with Mexico April 24, 1847. The companies formed were to report to "Old Fort Clark" near Jeffersonville. Immediately a company called the "Rough and Ready Guards" was formed in Monroe County and reported to the Governor on May 30, 1847. It was officered by Capt. Daniel Lunderman, 1st Lieutenant Wm. McPhetridge, and 2nd Lieutenants Barton Acuff and Thomas A. Reynolds. They became Co. G of the 4th Indiana, commanded by Col. Willis A. Gorman. The company was presented with a flag made by the ladies of Bloomington. The company marched to Columbus, took a train to Madison, and presumably went from there by boat to Jeffersonville. On the 28th of June 1847, the 4th Indiana left Jeffersonville for New Orleans on three steamboats, Captain Lunderman's company going on the steamboat "Franklin". The regiment went from New Orleans to the mouth of the Rio Grande and was a part of General Scott's army and with him went to the city of Mexico. The regiment returned to Madison and was mustered out July 16, 1848, came by rail to Columbus and then marched home on foot. Listed amongst this company were Privates Jackson Bales, James Bales, and Stephen Bales.

Picture of Jackson Bales' headstone in file reads: Jackson Bales Died Aug. 2, 1900 Aged 76 yrs 8 mos 10 dys. Across the bottom in large letters is the name BALES.

After the children were all born in Monroe County, IN the family moved to Morgan Co., IN as told to Dolores Gano by Maude Bales Hubbard in November 1963.

Obituary

Died Aug. 10, 1893, Sister Louisa Northern, wife of S.T. Northern, after a long and painful illness which she bore with fortitude and Christian resignation. Mrs. Northern, whose maiden name was Bolin, was born in Monroe county, this state, Sept. 23, 1849, and was married to Tilford Northern in her twentieth year. She was identified with the Christian church in 1872, and the "Graces," Faith, Hope and Charity, hovered around her dying bed, casing their white light on the dim pathway which leads from this world to the "Beautiful Beyond." Truly, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." A short service was held at the house by the writer. Many friends participated: and then, followed by the bereaved husband, and sorrowing children a large number of friends, the remains were conveyed to the Williams' graveyard and laid to rest. The husband and seven children are left sorrowing and sighing for the mother who bent all her energies for years to their best interests, often under the trying ordeal of adverse circumstances.

Mother, thou art not dead - only sleeping,
For thy absence only, are we weeping.
Elmwood, Aug., '93. N.J.M.

OBITUARY(Smith County Pioneer)

Maude Hubbard Lived Full Life of 102 Years

Maude Hubbard, daughter of Jackson and Lucinda Bales, was born Dec. 20, 1872 in Bloomington, Ind., and departed this life Oct. 29, 1975, in Smith Center at the age of 102 years, 10 months and 9 days. Death came at Ingleboro Rest Home, where she had been lovingly attended for nine years.

She was baptized into the Church of Christ on March 18, 1894, and remained a faithful member until the end.

On March 5, 1896, she was united in marriage to David Allen Hubbard, moving from Indiana to Kansas in March of 1900.

To this union were born five children. Preceding her in death were her husband and eldest son, Floy Lee.

Surviving children are Mable Louise Gano of Colorado Springs, Miner Hubbard of Smith Center, Paul Hubbard of Lebanon, and Jessie Mae Graham of Colorado Springs; 12 grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

She was a loving mother, a dedicated Christian and an inspiration and strength to all who really knew her.

Roy Harris officiated memorial services at Simmons Chapel at 10:30 a.m. Nov. 1. Lawrence Kern was the vocalist and sang "Abide With Me" and "It Is Well With My Soul".

Casket bearers were Leonard Gano, Bernard Gano, Dorrance Gano, Jack Hubbard, Dee Hubbard, Donald Hubbard, and Richard Hubbard. Interment was in Oak Creek Cemetery, Lebanon.

Notes for DAVID ALLEN HUBBARD:

Loese Hubbard told Dolores Gano that Maude and David Hubbard moved to Smith County Kansas to work for Albert Cooksey, who is believed to be a cousin. Albert Cooksey married Jane Godsey, daughter of Joseph and Esther (Whisenand) Godsey who was a sister of Elizabeth E. Godsey, wife of Henry Curtis (Curt) Bales, so it is possible Maude and David were related only by marriage through the Bales family. Albert Cooksey lived about six miles northeast of Lebanon on one of Charley Pennington's farms. In 1910 Maude's cousin, Curt Bales (son of Hawkins Bales) moved in across the road from Albert Cooksey to another Pennington farm. White Rock Creek ran through their farm. This was in the Salem area, which was quite a village until the Rock Island Railroad was built and most of the town moved to Esbon and Lebanon. All that remained of Salem was a general store, blacksmith shop, Methodist Church, school and a few family residences. After one to two years the Curt Bales family moved to Illinois. They came back to Kansas in October 1913. Charles F. Bales, son of Curt Bales wrote the book "Twice a Boy" from which this information was taken.

Another connection between these families is that Rebecca Hartsock, whose mother was Rebecca Whisenand, married Willis Hubbard, father of David Hubbard. Mary Hartsock, sister to Rebecca married Abraham Godsey, whose son Joseph married Esther Whisenand and their daughter Jane married Albert Cooksey.

Obituary of David Hubbard, Lebanon Times, Dec. 13, 1928:

The people of Pawnee were much saddened when they heard of the death of Mr. David Hubbard, who breathed his last on Thursday morning, November 29(sic). His illness was of very short duration though at short intervals for many months his health was frail, complaining of some inwardly trouble which he always bore with remarkable courage and fortitude, knowing that patience and resignation were most beneficial to his soul hereafter, and also aimed to shield or screen off any species of anxiety from his aged and beloved wife and children. Less than a week prior to his death, he and wife were visiting their son and family who lived about 8 miles from there, realizing probably that it would be his last visit. Soon after he took to his bed and lasted but a few days when his demise came.

Funeral services were held at the Pawnee Union church on Saturday at 1 o'clock. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Lewis E. Ketcherside, Bonna Terra, Missouri, who preached a most eloquent and impressive sermon on the the beautiful traits and exemplary life the deceased had led. After giving in detail a general biography of the deceased, the reverend gentleman then selected his text suitable for the occasion lasting for over an hour. The masterly oration throughout was most touching and affecting through most useful and salutary of the spiritual welfare of the vast assembly who came there on the sad occasion. The funeral procession was one of the largest and most representative that took place in this vicinity for many years, which constituted ample proof of the love and respect deceased was held by all classes in the community.

The deceased was a most devout and attentive member of the "Church Of Christ" which he joined several years ago.

Interment took place in the cemetery south of Lebanon, Kans., where he raised some of his family before moving to Pawnee.

The deceased was born at Bloomington, Ind., February 1849 and died November 22, 1928, aged 79 years. The deceased now leaves to mourn his loss his aged wife, four sons and three daughters, as follows: John(sic) of Bloomington, Ind.; Miner, Inavale, Nebr.; Floyd(sic), Red Cloud, Neb.; Paul of the home place; Mrs. E. Harding(sic), Bloomington, Ind.; Mrs. Mable Gano, Fairbury, Nebr., and Miss Jessie of the home place; also many grandchildren as well as a host of friends to mourn his loss. - Contributed.
